To Whom it May Concern,

When Jack Petrofski asked me to help him write a letter of recommendation, I was honored. I have had the privilege of having Jack in my classroom, as well as watching him compete on the baseball field, and as a member of Lambert's Student Council. Throughout my time working with him, Jack has consistently demonstrated exceptional work ethic, leadership, and athletic talent.

On the field, Jack is a dedicated and skilled player with a strong understanding of the game. As a teacher that also enjoys athletics, I make it a point each year to go watch my students play and talk with coaches to see in what ways I can help students succeed. His commitment to excellence is evident in both practice and competition, and he always strives to perform at his best. Jack's athletic ability is complemented by his positive attitude and ability to lead his teammates. Whether it's motivating others during tough moments or doing the things he needs to do to get better personally, Jack's leadership qualities make him a standout on the team. Because his schedule doesn't allow him to be on campus this year as much, he will come by and check in with me to let me know how things are going with his practices and his goals. I always enjoy our conversations as I get to hear how he is progressing.

Off the field, Jack is an active member of our student body, serving on student council and contributing to various school activities like Homecoming, Trunk or Treat, and the Can Food Drive. He is a well-rounded individual who excels in balancing academics, athletics, and community involvement. Jack is a natural leader who is always willing to help others, and his strong work ethic and determination extend beyond the classroom and into every area of his life. He shows up to meetings, is willing to bring in items when needed, and is always willing to help when asked.

I am confident that Jack will be an asset to any college and baseball program and will continue to make a positive impact both on and off the field. He has the potential to succeed at the collegiate level, and I would highly recommend him as a teammate and student as well. As a veteran teacher and coach of 20 plus years, I have had the privilege of teaching many stand-out athletes. Jack is one of these stand outs and a student that would be a welcomed addition to any school and team.

If you have any questions or would like further information, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

Laura Goode
